There's one second left on the clock. Only one opportunity for one last shot. Suddenly, the crowd goes silent. The ball goes up, and the ball hits the rim. The game is over. That's what happened to the Wasatch ball team Saturday night, as Juab 56-53.

The Wasps, now 0-11 on the season, played a complete game after a crushing region loss the night before.

Wasatch came out firing with a jumper by junior Robbie Farr. Farr answered back with a few points to move ahead 6-2.

With five minutes left to play in the quarter, Wasatch's Darin Restani pulled the Wasps within one. Then, Wasatch's Wade Price shot again. The Wasps were within one, then gave up the lead on two free throw attempts. The first half ended with an 11-11 tie.

Now having the lead, the Wasatch had to do was keep it.

The second quarter was a back-and-forth basketball, and the ball at the end was going to the leader.

With less than 10 seconds to go, the Wasps hit a bucket to put them up 21-19. The buzzer, sophomore Jeff Gerber fouled to give the Wasps a 22-19 lead.

Wasatch's Tad Tuttle goes up for the shot over Juab's defense. Tuttle led the Wasps with 12 points. Wasatch fell to Juab in the final seconds losing 56-53. They are now 0-11 overall.

The Utah Winter Games Biathlon At Soldier Hollow

On Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 6-7, Soldier Hollow saw plenty of activity to help them gear up for the 2002 Winter Olympics.

The Utah Winter Games visited the Heber Valley with the biathlon event, with many participants showing up to compete in this growing event.

Heber City's Ian Harvey won the senior men's division with a time of 27.18.8. He hit only one target in both the prone and standing positions.

Gerald Robinson finished second and Barry Schmitt placed third.

Elizabeth Pike of Boulder, Colo., won the senior women's division with a time of 33.25.5.

For the junior men, Ian Odell won with a time of 33.17, and Scott Wohlford took second. Wohlford shot clean in the prone position.

Sara Studebaker of Boise, Idaho, won the junior women's race with a time of 29.48.4.

So, when these two met for the third time at the first annual Utah All-Star Wrestling Classic, it was bound to be a blood for blood competition.

The two fought like cats and dogs throughout the entire round, with both having to catch their breath at the end of the first period.

Starting the second period Maxwell made an escape to give him a 1-0 lead over Sweat. But to make up for it, Sweat took the 2-1 lead after getting a take-down. Maxwell tied the match Pleasant Grove in the 130-pound bout.

Francis led 2-0 after the first period, then 5-0 after the second. Spencer scored in the final period, but it wasn't enough and Francis won the match on a 5-2 decision. This win helped the Deseret News All-Stars (1A-3A) take a 12-9 lead over the Salt Lake Tribune All-Stars (4A-5A). Francis' record is now 18-2.

Jon Carlisle, who didn't place at state last year, came in and dominated Mountain View's Rob Raeder.

Carlisle led after the first period 2-0, but decided to end the second. Carlisle are as follows:

103- Andy Butler (Monticello) defeated Kevin Hunter (Orem) 9-4.

112- Ben Kjar (Viewmont) defeated Tyler Teeples (Millard) 2-1 in overtime.

119- Christ Abbot (Delta) defeated Jordan Webb (Spanish Fork) by fall.

125- Cam Jones (Brighton) defeated Justin Lake (Rich) by fall.

130- Luke Francis (Wasatch) defeated Kip Spencer (Pleasant Grove) 5-2.
